

Delight Holt Penrod

September 18, 1922 - October 10, 2014

Delight Holt Penrod, 92, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, great-great-grandmother and friend, died peacefully at home on the morning of October 10, 2014. Born in Provo, Utah to Verena Crandall and Cyrus B. Holt on September 18, 1922.

Delight married her sweetheart, Paul S. Penrod on November 10, 1938. They enjoyed an amazing 72 years together before Paul was called home in 2011.

Delight grew up on the family farm and learned to work hard early in life, where she learned to preserve fruits and vegetables and to cook and clean. She was often found teaching others one of these skills. She was famous for her fish fry, homemade bread and her pomegranate jelly, just to name a few. If you came to visit you never left without a loaf of bread, or if you were lucky, a jar of her pomegranate jelly.

Delight was a member of the LDS church and served in various callings throughout the years. Later in her life she served in her ward by making cards for people. She loved to brighten people's lives with one of her homemade cards.

Delight is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Paul Steven and Pauline Young Penrod. Her grandchildren and their spouses, Paul Cyrus Penrod (Lorie), Shareen Golish (Rick), and William Clete Penrod (Jenny); brother, Val Douglas Holt (Sally); 15 great-grandchildren and 5 great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; two siblings, Yvonne Holt Brockbank and Cyrus C. (Jack) Holt; her loving husband, Paul S. Penrod, and three infant sons.

“ I remember as a very young child going to Uncle Paul and Aunt Delights' home on Columbia Lane with my father (Garth Frank Penrod). There was myself the oldest of four children, my identical twin sisters Candy Sue and Sandy Lou, and our baby brother Randall Frank. We would play on the mountain hillside outside of their home for hours, then come in to eat home cooking which was the best ever! One specific memory was being allowed to play the old pump organ in the parlor. I couldn't read a note, and I am sure it sounded like caterwauling, but there was never a complaint. Aunt Delight's home was always immaculate, and beautifully decorated. Uncle Paul was very knowledgable and industrious, he had laid rock work throughout the inside and outside of their beautiful home.

Many hours were also spent playing at Penrod Garage that was just down the hill from their home, where he worked very hard fixing and repairing everything cars and trucks. I have many fond memories of them both, they always treated us like kings and queens of the royal courts.

I also enjoyed revisiting with them at the Penrod Reunions as an adult. Uncle Paul so handsome, and Aunt Delight always so beautiful, never a hair out of place. They both will be missed, but are rejoiced to once again be reunited with each other, and the love they shared. Together again for all of Eternity.

We Love you Aunt Delight and Uncle Paul ,
Kristy (Penrod) John of Payson, Utah
