“ I was the Crossing Guard at 400 S 500 W in Provo and when Jim would walk to the Rec Center he would pass by. After he helped at the Temple to Temple run we knew who each other was, and we would say Hi to each other. It was fun and broke up the monotony

“ Jim was a good friend and a great storyteller. He'd visit me every couple of weeks to tell me of his latest adventures. I'm truly grateful I had the opportunity to know him and be his friend and I'll miss his visits dearly. Much love to Alice, Stephanie, Donald and the rest of the family.
