“ We were all very shocked when just yesterday we heard of your passing. All though it has been years since last seeing you and your famly we hope that you are resting peacefully now. There has been many enjoyable memories of our families together living in Rondtree. We regret only just hearing about this and want to say that you and your family will be in our prayers.

“ To the Harris Family: My deepest condolences on the loss of such a wonderful man.

I have many fond memories of Joe outside of being his girlfriend of 5 days. :) I will always cherish the times we spent together at the play park, going to ward activities, attending the Chicago concert, the zoo, baseball games, the time he took to spend time with me on the phone, etc.

The love Joe had for me and everyone he came into... contact with and his friendship is the friendship that made me know what a good friend really is. He had a way of cheering me up if I had had a bad day. Joe is a man that has showed me there are some great guys out there in the world. I hope to find a husband some day with such a strong testimony of the church as Joe had.

I dearly loved him, even if I rarely showed it. I LOVE You Joe. Always did and always will. I will see you again someday.

I love you so much Joe and always will!!

“ When I was a little girl Joseph was a youth. I will always remember how every fast Sunday, almost without fail, you could count on Joseph to bear his sweet, vibrant testimony from the stand. He made a difference in his community even at that young age.
